Numb. 4990

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 10. to Saturday April 12. 1712.

Turin, March 30. N. S.

THE Detachment which his Royal Highneſs ſent for from Italy, begins now to arrive at St. Balein and Montanaro, within Eight or Ten Miles of this Place, where they are to continue, till the Snow, which is yet conſiderable on the Mountains, begins to Melt, or that the Enemy, who are yet very quiet, ſhall begin to move. This Detachment is Commanded by Lieutenant-General Regall and Major-General Wackterden, beſides a Pruſſian General, who are Daily expected here to receive his Royal Highneſs's Commands, and to inform him of the Condition in which their Troops remain at preſent. The Contador General Fontana, one of his Royal Highneſs's Plenipotentiaries at Milan, for arbitrating and determining ſeveral Differences between his Imperial Majeſty and this Court, has been here Five or Six Days, to give the neceſſary Orders for the Subſiſtance of theſe Troops, and to inform his Royal Highneſs of thoſe Negotiations, and is to return again to Morrow, with new Orders to ſollicit the ſpeedy Concluſion of thoſe Differences. His Royal Highneſs, with the Dutcheſs Conſort, the Young Princes and their Court deſign to go to the Venerie this Afternoon, and to continue there for Two or Three Months.

Venice, April 1. N. S. They write from Naples, that the Britiſh Men of War, with the Johnſton, and ſome Tartanes, were to ſail on the latter end of the laſt Month, with Proviſions for Port Mahone. The Senate have thought fitting, conſidering the great Preparations of the Turks on that ſide, to provide for the Security of the Morea, and in order to it, will in a little time diſtribute Commiſſions for the raiſing of ten thouſand Men. The Signior Antonio Paluzzi is to ſet out in a few days for Naples, with the Character of Reſident from this Republick.

Bruſſels, April 14. N. S. The States of Brabant have conſented to the four hundred thouſand Florins, demanded of them by way of Extraordinary Subſidy, towards furniſhing the Imperial and Palatin Troops that are to ſerve on this ſide, with Bread and Forage, during the next Campaign:. In a few Days the States of Flanders will have taken their final Reſolution, upon the ſix hundred thouſand Florins demanded of them for the ſame Service. Her Majeſty's Forces in Garriſon at Gand, are march'd to Day towards the General Rendezvous of the Army; as are likewiſe the two Battalions of Foot Guards from hence, with the Regiment of Cadogan, and the Troops of Hanover from the Demer.

Utrecht, April 15. N. S. A General Conference was held on Wedneſday the Thirteenth Inſtant, in the Town-houſe, at which all the Miniſters reſiding here, as well of the Allies, as of France, aſſiſted: Thoſe of the States-General took that Occaſion to deliver from their Maſters, a Paſſport to the latter, which they had ſome time ſince deſired for the Security of their Couriers. It was deſign'd that another General Conference ſhould be held to Morrow as uſual, but the French Miniſters have declared, that if the Allies have nothing Particular to offer, it may be put off, as has been often done on the like Occaſions. The Prince of Naſſau Ziegen is lately come to this Place, in order to lay before the Miniſters of the Allies, the Pretenſions he has to the Principality of Orange. Don Louis Da Cunha, one of the Plenipotentiaries from the King of Portugal, has this Day notify'd his arrival here. Yeſterday in the Evening the Britiſh and Dutch Plenipotentiaries were in Conference together, as thoſe of the Proteſtant Allies were this Day at the Lord Privy-Seal's Houſe. Monſieur Hymen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Pruſſia to the States-General, arriv'd here this Morning from the Hague. The Earl of Strafford deſigns to go to that Place for Three or Four Days, Mr. Harley being not yet return'd from thence.

Utrecht, April 19. N. S. On Saturday the Sixteenth Inſtant, there was held a General Conference as uſual, notwithſtanding the Propoſals which had been made the Day before for putting it off; the Miniſters of the Allies enquiring again of thoſe of France, whether they were ready to give Specifick Anſwers in Writing, they excuſed themſelves on Account of their not being as yet fully Inſtructed from the King their Maſter on that Subject. In the Evening, Prince Eugene of Savoy, accompany'd by the Duke of Wirtemburg, and General Schulemburg came hither: That Prince receiv'd Viſits from all the Miniſters reſiding here, and having return'd them, ſet out laſt Night, together with Count Sinzendorff for the Hague. Yeſterday Morning it being agreed, that no Conference ſhould be held in the Town-houſe, between the Miniſters of the Allies; thoſe of the Proteſtant Princes met at the Houſe of the Miniſters of Savoy, in order to confer with them on ſettling Matters of Religion in that Country: This Conference ended much to the Satisfaction of the former, the Plenipotentiaries of his Royal Highneſs having given them good Aſſurances, that a due regard would be had to what they had offer'd, in relation to thoſe Affairs. To Morrow being appointed for a Solemn Faſt in this Country, no General Conference will be held before Saturday next, againſt which time the Miniſters who are now at the Hague, are expected here.

Hague, April 19. N. S. On Saturday the Sixteenth Inſtant, his Excellency the Earl of Strafford arriv'd here from Utrecht; and beſides ſeveral Conferences he has had with the Penſionary and other Miniſters of the States, a Deputation from their Body came Yeſterday Morning to his Houſe, where there was a Conference held, which laſted about an Hour. Prince Eugene, who went on Saturday in the Evening to Utrecht, return'd hither this Morning, together with Count Sinzendorff; both which aſſiſted this Afternoon at another Conference the States General had deſir'd with the Earl of Strafford. To Morrow being appointed a ſolemn Day of Devotion, there will be a Ceſſation of Buſineſs, as well here as at Utrecht; to which Place the Earl of Strafford intends to return on Thurſday Night, in order to aſſiſt at the General Conference on Saturday next. Mr. Harley continues